The "Red Triangle" is calling. It is the Y. M. C. A. war work fund.

Diaz, the new Italian commander-in-chief, did not get his military training over in Mexico, much as his name may seem to indicate.

Rutland was fortunate in having a fourth of its Y. M. C. A. war work quota subscribed before the campaign began. Evidently Rutland is out for the state record.

After many wheelless days, voluntarily self-imposed, it is rather disconcerting to learn that the food shortage is in part due to hoarding by big concerns in the great cities. However, we'll stick to the program.

There must, of course, be an end to the growth of the Vermont food pledge campaign; but the old state has gone so far that it may be safely called Hooverized already. Vermont, you have done well in this.

The elimination of the toll bridge between Wells River and Woodsville this week will mark an advance toward modernism, with only a few bits of antiquity still existing, notably the toll bridge between Waterford and Littleton and the bridge between Windsor and Cornish.

VERMONT'S MILITARY BAND.

The Vermont regimental band has been gaining considerable favorable reputation throughout Massachusetts, where it, together with the National Guard of New England, has been stationed for several months; and that reputation is being maintained in full strength by the present tour of the organization in Vermont. Barre, which was the home of the organization when the Headquarters company of the old Vermont National Guard was formed, had the pleasure of listening to the band on Monday evening, and the unanimous verdict of the large audience was that the soldier musicians have attained a very high degree of excellence. In fact, many were ready to say that no superior has been heard in Barre. But be that as it may, the recognition given the Vermont regimental band was about as hearty and spontaneous as it was possible to give. Vermont has reason to be proud of this organization, made up as it is almost entirely of Vermont men. The capable leader, Mr. Krulac, claims Boston as his residence; another member was imported into Vermont a few years ago and is, perhaps, to be claimed only in part; a third enlisted in the band while he was a resident of Vermont but his parents have since moved to New Hampshire. With these exceptions the band is, we believe, an all-Vermont organization, many communities being represented. The individuals have been moulded into a compact music unit possessing unusual powers of interpretation, and their concerted effort is real music that one would go many miles to hear. We hope for the organization the continued success which its ability merits.

BARRE, DO YOUR PART.

We need not go far afield to gain the information that the Y. M. C. A. war work is doing very well by our army and navy, for Barre boys already in service are ready to express their appreciation of the efforts in their behalf by the organization. In another column of today's paper we give some of the expressions of appreciation on the part of these Barre men, who tell us that the Y. M. C. A. is the one big tie between the camp and the home and that the Y. M. C. A. buildings are the only real homelike places in the camps. If the Y. M. C. A. is playing an important part in soldier life in the United States how much more important must it be in the foreign countries to which the boys are being sent? There the boys are removed more than 3,000 miles from their homes, thrown into strange scenes, coming in contact with but few people who can speak their own language (barring England, of course), and, if nothing else intervenes, thrown almost entirely upon their own resources in their hours of rest from service. It is far different there than it

DON'T LET WIFE DIE OF LOCKJAW

Warn Her Against Cutting Corns Because They Can Be Lifted Out

Women wear high heels, which buckle up their toes, and they suffer terribly from corns. Women then proceed to trim these pests, seeking relief, but they hardly realize the terrible danger from infection, says a Cincinnati authority. Corns can easily be lifted out with the fingers if you will get from any drug store a quarter of an ounce of a drug called frogzone. This is sufficient to remove every hard or soft corn or callous from one's feet. You simply apply a few drops directly upon the tender, aching corn. The soreness is relieved at once and soon the entire corn, root and all, lifts out without pain. This is a sticky substance which dries in a moment. It just shrivels up the corn without inflaming or even irritating the surrounding tissue or skin. Cut this out and pin on your wife's dresser.—Adv.

is in the camps in the United States; and if the Y. M. C. A. is proving to be a great help to the boys here it must be immeasurably beneficial in the foreign lands, keeping the boys from homesickness, affording them healthful and wholesome diversions and warding off some of the evils which always creep into army life.

To keep up this work is the duty of every loyal American whether or not they have relatives in the army or navy. It is an obligation which we must assume in order to keep the hundreds of thousands of our own boys in the best possible state of mental and bodily health, as well as to aid the other countries in doing the same work. So when the canvassers ask you to-morrow to contribute something toward Barre's quota in the Y. M. C. A. war work subscribe gladly and as generously as you can. Your dollars will go far toward making the soldier and sailor life of our fighting men as liveable as possible under the conditions.

WILLIAMSTOWN

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Sheridan left town on the 10th for Bridgeport, Conn., where they will spend the winter with their son, Ray Sheridan, and family.

Mrs. Raymond Farrington of Cabot is spending a week in town with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Marr, while her husband is away deer hunting. George Brigham was in town for a few days last week with Mr. and Mrs. Edwin C. Smith, having been called here from Springfield to attend the funeral of his aunt, Miss Marie D. White, of Montpelier.

Mrs. Etta M. Covell and Miss Mabel Lassell, who went to Washington, D. C., last week to enter the employ of the government as department clerk, have been fortunate in securing rooms in the home of George D. Martin, who went to that city many years ago and has been a trusted employee for a long time.

Mr. Mann, teacher of agriculture in the Chelsea schools, was in town the 10th, and acted as one of the judges in making the awards at the school fair. Mrs. Willard Sprague suffered a second shock yesterday morning, the 12th, and her death occurred about noon. Particulars as to the funeral are not yet received.

The Red Cross realized upwards of $800 as the proceeds of the banquet furnished at the district meeting of the O. E. S. last week.

The school fair on Saturday last at the town hall was an unqualified success. The display included not only fruits and vegetables of which there was a very creditable showing, but canned goods and fancy articles. The grange will need to look to its laurels or it will find itself overshadowed by the yearly exhibit of the pupils of the schools.

Dr. Vernon H. Edson of Woodville, N. H., has lately been in town on a visit to his wife, who is the guest of her mother, Mrs. Hattie Poor.

The committee in charge of the entertainment to follow the ladies' aid chicken-pie supper in the Congregational church next Friday evening is feeling quite confident of the quality of the program it has been able to arrange. It is as follows: Ladies' quartet; reading, Miss Ruth Angell, East Brookfield; selection, East Brookfield quartet; solo, Douglas Inglis of Barre, tenor; selection, Rev. G. W. Keeling; solo, Miss Katherine Young of Barre, soprano; selection, Barre quartet, Misses Katherine Young and Henrietta Inglis, Douglas Inglis and George Mackay; solo, Mrs. Nina Jewett, contralto; reading, Rev. John Irons; solo, Miss Henrietta Inglis, contralto; piano solo, Miss Isabel Kynoch; solo, George Mackay, bass; ladies' quartet; "America." For supper and entertainment the charge will be 40c. Entertainment alone, 15c. Remember the proceeds go for war relief.

The banquet given by the Red Cross society for the O. E. S. district meeting Friday evening was a grand success, $62.50 being taken in at the supper and from some surplus donations, sold afterwards, about $9.50 was realized, making a total of about $72. The society wishes to thank everyone who responded so generously to the solicitors for food and for money.

FLOCKING TO ENLIST.

Americans in Canada Are Coming to Fight for Uncle Sam.

Burlington, Nov. 13.—Traveling 2,600 miles, from the far Canadian Northwest to Burlington in order to enlist in the service of his country, is the patriotism displayed by George Carpenter, son of Mrs. Edna Carpenter of 241 Church street. Young Carpenter after graduating from Burlington high school was employed on the editorial staff of the Daily News. He next held down a fine position on the Montreal Gazette for five years, which he resigned last spring to go on a large cattle ranch in Saskatchewan.

Mr. Carpenter saved a little money and bought some stock which is being raised to-day on the ranch where he was employed. He could not see his country at war, however, without responding to the patriotic call and hastened here to register. In a few days he expects to go to Brattleboro where he will enlist in the artillery corps of the United States army.

Look and Feel Clean, Sweet and Fresh Every Day

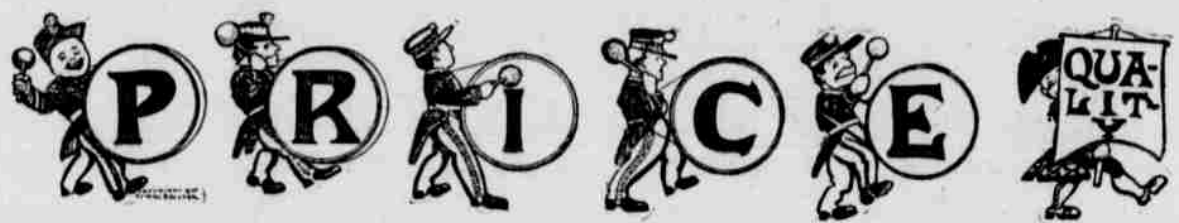

Drink a glass of real hot water before breakfast to wash out poisons.

Life is not merely to live, but to live well, eat well, digest well, work well, sleep well, look well. What a glorious condition to attain, and yet how very easy it is if one will only adopt the morning linen bath.

Folk who are accustomed to feel dull and heavy when they arise, splitting headache, stuffy from a cold, foul tongue, nasty breath, acid stomach, can, instead, feel as fresh as a daisy by opening the sluices of the system each morning and flushing out the whole of the internal poisonous stagnant matter.

Everyone, whether ailing, sick or well, should, each morning, before breakfast, drink a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it to wash from the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels the previous day's indigestible waste, sour bile and poisonous toxins; thus cleansing, sweetening and purifying the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach. The action of hot water and limestone phosphate on an empty stomach is wonderfully invigorating. It cleans out all the sour fermentations, gases, waste and acidity and gives one a splendid appetite for breakfast. While you are enjoying your breakfast the water and phosphate is quietly extracting a large volume of water from the blood and getting ready for a thorough flushing of all the inside organs.

The millions of people who are bothered with constipation, bilious spells, stomach trouble, rheumatism; others who have sallow skins, blood disorders and sickly complexions are urged to get a quarter pound of limestone phosphate from the drug store, which will cost very little, but is sufficient to make anyone a pronounced crank on the subject of internal sanitation.—Adv.
